Dear Partner:

Today, ominous things are happening in the world around us. To those who study the Word and understand its prophetic message, we know that Jesus is coming very soon! That is why we continually seek effective ways to reach the lost with the precious message of Jesus Christ.

Noting that our church, Iglesia Pacto de Paz, is situated in a large neighborhood filled with children, we prayed for ways to reach them with the Gospel. After several months, we launched after-school tutoring classes for kids who need extra help with their studies. Included in the curriculum are Bible stories and character-building object lessons. The idea caught on quickly. Grateful parents, eager for their children to excel in school, gladly embraced the idea. Some of the mothers have volunteered to help. Enrollment quickly climbed to thirty and is expected to rise as the program gains broader exposure. The classes are held at the church.

Pastor Felipe reports that Brother Daniel and his wife, both public school teachers who attend our church, have volunteered to teach the classes, and that the Department of Public Education (Mexico) is quite pleased with the arrangement. The outreach is supervised by Brother Ramon and his wife Norma, house parents at Casa Jovenes Del Rey (Boys' Home) in Piedras Negras. We are excited with what God is doing. Brother Daniel and his wife also host Pacto de Paz weekly radio program.

Thank you with all my heart for your prayer and financial support for this growing work. Your seed is bringing precious souls to Jesus. God bless you!

Thank you for replacing the roof at Casa Jovenes Del Rey. This is all one building. We are remodeling the outside as funds come in.

I know Christmas has passed, but these Casa Jovenes Del Rey boys made me laugh with their creativity! Love my kids!

Teaching children to pray is an important part of our after-school curriculum at Pacto de Paz.
