Fourteen-year-old Patty entered Casa Del Rey in April. She joins Fourteen-year-old Mariana who joined us earlier in April.

I recently visited the boys' home in Piedras Negras, Casa Jovenes Del Rey.

The after-school classes held at Pacto de Paz for neighborhood children are appreciated by parents and children alike.

We welcome Abraham and Nellie's new baby boy Mateo. He joins his two year old brother Abraham Emanuel.

Dear Partner:

God bless you! Thank you with all my heart for standing with us as we care for children whom God sends our way. I often wonder where children such as Rossy, and Patty, and Joaquin and others would be today if you and I had given up and said it was too hard, or too expensive.

Bestselling author Rick Joyner wrote that the Lord told him to go and gather His Captains and that he would find them taking care of the widows and the fatherless. That includes you, my partners, who listen to his voice and support his work. We are entering into difficult times. Great darkness is trying to cover the world as a mudslide would cover whole towns. We resist the darkness with The Blessing and the love of God. We do not preach "love and tolerance" as is so often attributed to Jesus. We preach the "Kingdom of Heaven and repentance" Mark 1:14, 15. All power is given to the King. Repentance connects us to that power so that he can freely live in and through us. Our children are arrows that are sharpened to be shot into the future and change the world into the Kingdom of Heaven, one life at a time.

Mariana and Patty are happy to find a refuge in our Children's home. The world is a dangerous place, but it is even more dangerous for children who find themselves without the protection of Godly parents. You have helped us to properly feed, clothe, educate, shelter, nurture, and love these dear ones. They all come with baggage, and the work is not easy, but we are doing it for Jesus.

We hear from some of the children who used to live in our homes. Years later the training comes back to them and they suddenly begin to seek the Lord and return to us for reassurance, love and counseling. That is thrilling as with each of them there is a story of redemption. Most of the stories are too personal to share in a public forum. None the less, the seed of the Word of the Kingdom is planted in ground that we have done our best to prepare for receiving the Word. Though decades may pass before the fruit comes, it does come. Praise the Lord!

Thank you for your prayers and support! We are laborers together with God. God bless you!

Proud Papa Felipe poses with Rossy who graduated from Bible School May 5, 2014.

We are at the boys' home in Jiménez (Rancho Jovenes Del Rey). Four of the boys wanted to pose with us for a picture. House parents Pedro and Fabiola also minister on Friday afternoon to the neighborhood children.

On Sunday morning, Rosita (right) and Casa Del Rey girls pose for a picture before services begin.
