Blessing children in Mexico and other countries

Arturo dropped by for a visit with Ramon and Norma. He grew up in Casa Jovenes Del Rey. We're always happy when our kids come home to visit.

Fabiola has broadened our summer outreach by tutoring the children in reading, and math as well as teaching Bible stories.

Dear Partner:

God bless you! I'm excited! We have opened a new arm of ministry for the summer which will greatly broaden our scope of reaching parents and children with the Gospel. At the boys' ranch, Fabiola and Pedro are tutoring neighborhood children in reading and math skills. Included also are Bible stories and character-building lessons which emphasize the importance of having Jesus living in their heart. I couldn't be more pleased.

Fabiola grew up in Casa Del Rey, attended college in Monterrey and received a degree in marketing. She also has three years' Bible School training. I am pleased to remind you that you paid for Faby's education and others like her! Thank you for loving Jesus and the children! She and Pedro met in Bible School. They are the parents of two children, Pedrito and Dania Zoe.

Following is a letter I received from sixteen-year-old Eduardo. It brought tears to my eyes. He expresses just how important you are to him. (Edited for brevity.)

"Hi, my name is Eduardo. I am 16 and I love writing stories. I study at CECATI (in Mexico) learning English. I am living at Casa Jovenes Del Rey and I really like it, I know that my parents Ramon and Norma loves me as their own son and I love them too (including my brothers and my sister). I really thank God for your lives, because if it wasn't for you I don't know where I was, you gave me a home and everything that a person need for live, and Jesus Christ. He is my Father and my Savior. He gave reason to my life! I really thank you for your obedience to God because you gave everything for this teenager. God is with us and He will give us more partners for the Ministry. We are praying for you so God will give you peace and rest for your soul with his Holy Spirit. We know that God is keeping this Ministry until He came back, because we are with Him and at the same time, He is with us...John 15:5&7, Philippians 1:6. And finally, I want to say to everyone, thanks and 'Cast all your anxiety on God because he cares for you.' Attentively: Eduardo."

Thank you for your ministry to us and to the Lord Jesus! As you can see, your prayers and your gifts are changing lives for Jesus Christ.
God bless you!

While teaching the neighborhood children every Friday, Faby realized that many of the kids had not attended school. She began summer classes. Parents and children are delighted!
